

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. I am not interested in the far right views of the owners of
Sinclair
Broadcasting. I am outraged at this dispicable attempt to air a anti-Kerry
documentary for political reasons!

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not
weaken them.
